

Tips for Taxpayers:

How to Claim your OMRF Tax Credit

Because you made a contribution to OMRF in 2023, you may be eligible for a tax credit against your Oklahoma income taxes. Enter the amount of your credit (remember - 50% of your gift total, up to a total tax credit of $1,000 for individuals or businesses, or $2,000 for a married couple filling jointly).

For all Oklahoma taxpayers, use Form 511CR – 2023.

- Line 15, Column B: Enter the amount of your 2023 credit (remember – 50% of your gift total, up to $1,000 or $2,000 allowed)
- Line 28: Enter total amount of all credits

For individuals, use Form 511 – 2023

- Line 17: Enter the total amount of the credit from Line 28 of Form 511CR
- Line 17: If the only tax credit claimed is the Biomedical Research Contribution, enter “15” in the box. If more than one tax credit is claimed, enter “99” in the box

For corporations, use Form 512 – 2023

Form 511CR is available on TurboTax and in other tax programs.

It is our understanding that the links to follow on TurboTax to enter the tax credit information are:

1. Taxes and credits
2. State Tax Credits
3. Scroll down to the end of the list and click on “start” next to “Additional Business Credits”
4. Click “start” next to “Credit for Biomedical Research Contribution”

A copy of a canceled check or receipt (such as the enclosed letter) must be provided as proof of the donation. Tax forms and instructions may be found at www.tax.ok.gov. The tax credit is authorized under 68 OS Sec. 2357.45 and Rule 710:50-15-113.

Please call 405-271-7400 if you have any questions about your gift to OMRF.

This is not legal, accounting or financial advice. You are strongly encouraged to seek a professional opinion from a qualified provider. IRS CIRCULAR 230 NOTICE: Any tax advice in this message was not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of avoiding tax penalties.

